

Kailash Yatra - Fly in Fly out Simikot - Hilsa

Trip Overview

Embark on a spiritually uplifting and adventurous journey to Mount Kailash (6,638m) and Lake Mansarovar (4,550m)—sacred sites revered by Hindus, Buddhists, Jains, and Bon followers. This life-changing pilgrimage takes you through remote Himalayan terrain, offering a perfect blend of faith, challenge, and natural beauty.

This route begins in Nepalgunj, with scenic flights to Simikot, followed by a thrilling helicopter ride to Hilsa, the gateway to Tibet. The journey continues through the breathtaking Tibetan plateau in air-conditioned coaches, passing through Taklakot, Lake Mansarovar, and eventually leading to the highlight of the trip—Mount Kailash Parikrama (circumambulation), which includes trekking across the high-altitude Dolma La Pass (5,630m).

The program is carefully designed to ensure proper acclimatization, safe travel, and spiritual fulfillment. Vegetarian meals, experienced guides, medical support, and emergency backup systems (like oxygen and Gamow bag) are provided for safety and comfort.

Ideal for devotees and seekers aiming for a divine experience in the lap of the Himalayas, this Yatra is one of the most revered and transformative pilgrimages in the world.

Total Trip Days: 9 Days

Itinerary

Day 1:

Upon your arrival at Lucknow Airport, you will be received by our representative. After clearing customs, drive towards Nepalgunj (approx. 190-200 km, 6 hrs). On arrival, check-in at the hotel.

Evening: A short briefing on the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra will be held before dinner.

Overnight: Hotel in Nepalgunj

Day 2:

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight to Simikot. Upon arrival, check in at the hotel. Later in the day, take a short walk to the Shiva Temple and return.

Overnight: Hotel in Simikot

Day 3:

Post breakfast, take a helicopter ride (approx. 20 mins, 15 kg baggage limit) to Hilsa. Once all group members arrive (group visa entry), complete immigration and customs on both Nepal and China sides. Continue the drive to Purang, passing through checkpoints en route.

Overnight: Hotel in Purang

Day 4:

Today is reserved for acclimatization. You can rest or explore the local markets to purchase trekking gear like jackets, sticks, bottles, etc., for the upcoming Kora (Parikrama).

Overnight: Hotel in Purang

Day 5:

After breakfast, drive to Rakshas Tal (40 km, approx. 1.5 hrs), where you'll get the first views of Mt. Kailash (south face) and Gurla Mandhata. Continue the journey to Lake Mansarovar and perform the Parikrama (circumambulation) of the sacred lake by vehicle. You may take a holy dip and perform rituals like Pooja and Homa.

Overnight: Hotel in Mansarovar Lake

Day 6:

Today marks the beginning of your Kailash Kora. After a short drive to Yamdwar, start the 12 km trek to Diraphuk (7-8 hrs), witnessing the west and north faces of Mt. Kailash.

Overnight: Guesthouse in Diraphuk

Day 7:

This is the most challenging day of the Kora. Begin the trek early and ascend to Dolma-La Pass (5,630m), then descend towards Gauri Kund and continue alongside a river to reach Zutulphuk.

Note: Those not doing Parikrama will return to Darchen and rejoin the group later.

Overnight: Guest House in Zutulphuk

Day 8:

After a short morning trek, meet the waiting vehicle and drive to Darchen to reunite with non-parikrama participants. Then proceed towards Hilsa, clearing immigration on both sides.

Overnight: Hotel in Hilsa

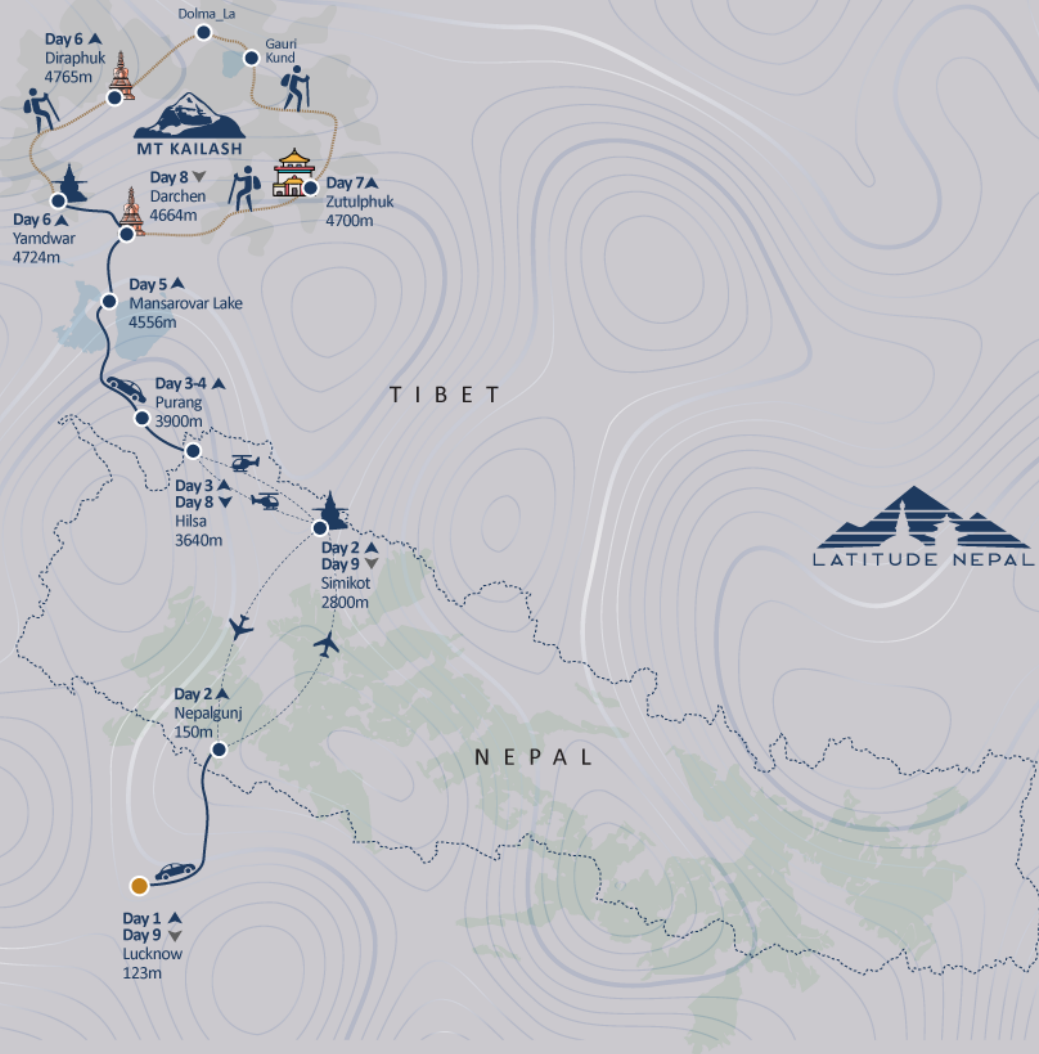

Day 9:

After breakfast, take a helicopter ride back to Simikot, then board the connecting flight to Nepalgunj. Freshen up at a hotel, and later drive back to Lucknow for your final departure.
