Itinerary

Day 1:

On arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport, guests are welcomed with VIP assistance and transferred in a private luxury vehicle to The Dwarika's Hotel, a heritage property that beautifully blends Newari architecture with modern comfort. The remainder of the day is left free to relax after the long journey. In the evening, a multi-course welcome dinner is served at the hotel Restaurant.

Accommodation: The Dwarika's Hotel – Heritage Deluxe Room or Marriott Kathmandu

Meals: Dinner

Day 2:

At dawn, guests are transferred to the domestic terminal for a private helicopter charter to the Khumbu region. The flight sweeps past towering Himalayan giants before making a scenic landing at Kongde Resort (4,250m), where breakfast is served with an unparalleled panorama of Everest, Lhotse, and Ama Dablam. After returning to Kathmandu, the afternoon is dedicated to a guided heritage walk through Patan Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage site showcasing intricate temples and courtyards. The evening is at leisure back at hotel.

Accommodation: The Dwarika's Hotel or Marriott Kathmandu

Meals: Breakfast

Day 3:

After a leisurely breakfast, guests take a regular domestic flight to Pokhara, where clear skies reveal dramatic views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges. Upon arrival, a private transfer brings them to Tiger Mountain Pokhara Lodge, an eco-luxury retreat perched on a ridge above the Pokhara Valley. The afternoon is spent unwinding by the infinity pool or enjoying a restorative spa treatment. As the sun sets, cocktails are served on the terrace, followed by a dinner featuring organic farm-to-table cuisine.

Accommodation: Tiger Mountain Pokhara Lodge - Cottage Room or Similar

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Day 4:

This morning, guests enjoy an exclusive round at the Himalayan Golf Course, considered one of the world's most unique courses, carved dramatically into a river canyon. Returning to the lodge, the afternoon offers options for relaxation, such as a private boat ride across Phewa Lake with views of Machhapuchhre reflected in the water or a guided village walk. The evening is free to savor Pokhara's tranquil atmosphere before dining at the lodge.

Accommodation: Tiger Mountain Pokhara Lodge or Similar

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Day 5:

After breakfast, guests board a private helicopter for a breathtaking flight from Pokhara into the trans-Himalayan landscapes of Mustang. The chopper lands directly at Shinta Mani Mustang, A Bensley Collection Lodge, perched high above the Kali Gandaki Valley. The remainder of the day is dedicated to gentle acclimatization, with opportunities for light walks guided by the lodge team. In the evening, guests gather around the fire pit for cocktails, followed by a refined dinner crafted from local organic ingredients.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang - All-Inclusive Suite

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 6:

Following a leisurely breakfast, a private guided excursion takes guests to Dhumba Lake, a turquoise alpine lake revered by locals for its spiritual significance. En route, visits are made to Tibetan refugee settlements and monasteries where Buddhist monks continue centuries-old practices. A gourmet picnic is arranged by the lake before returning to Pokhara for the evening. Guests may enjoy the quietude of Tiger Mountain Lodge, with its views of the Annapurnas bathed in golden light at dusk.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang - All-Inclusive Suite

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Day 7:

The day begins with an excursion to Kagbeni, a medieval village of narrow alleys, mud-brick houses, and monasteries, located at the confluence of the Kali Gandaki and Mustang Rivers. Guests explore ancient architecture and learn about the village's role as a gateway to Upper Mustang. The afternoon is free to return to the lodge for rest, spa treatments, or a photography walk in the evening light. After sundown, storytelling and cocktails by the fireplace await.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang - All-Inclusive Suite

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 8:

Today's journey leads to Muktinath Temple, a revered pilgrimage site for both Hindus and Buddhists, framed by breathtaking vistas of Dhaulagiri and Nilgiri peaks. Along the way, the landscape shifts from arid cliffs to windswept plateaus. Guests may explore the temple's eternal flame and sacred water spouts before returning to the lodge. The evening is a time for relaxation, gourmet dining, and perhaps stargazing under Mustang's crystal-clear skies.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang - All-Inclusive Suite

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 9:

A guided excursion takes guests to Lupra, one of the last remaining villages where the pre-Buddhist Bon religion is still practiced. Guests meet local families, observe ancient rituals, and learn about Bon's shamanistic heritage. After a picnic lunch, the afternoon is left open for gentle exploration or rest at the lodge, with opportunities for wellness treatments and relaxation in the serene mountain surroundings.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 10:

This day is devoted to the charming village of Marpha, celebrated for its apple orchards, cider, and brandy. Guests stroll through cobbled lanes lined with whitewashed houses and monasteries, experiencing Mustang's unique fusion of Tibetan and Nepali culture. Returning to the lodge in the evening, a special farewell dinner is arranged with Mustang-inspired gourmet creations.

Accommodation: Shinta Mani Mustang

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 11:

After breakfast, a helicopter carries guests back across the mountains to Pokhara, from where a scheduled domestic flight returns them to Kathmandu. Instead of staying in the city center, they are transferred to The Terraces Resort, a serene luxury retreat on a wooded hilltop just outside Kathmandu. The afternoon is reserved for relaxation with spa treatments, an infinity pool, and uninterrupted Himalayan views. The final evening in Nepal is celebrated with a farewell dinner.

Accommodation: The Terraces - Luxury Suite

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Day 12:

After a leisurely breakfast, guests are transferred to Tribhuvan International Airport with VIP departure assistance for their onward journey to the United States.
